Course Outline:

The US-China Trade War, social events and the current coronavirus outbreak have magnified the financial risk of almost all corporations in Hong Kong. The extended disruptions could possibly lead to financial distress and liquidity issues, no matter the scale of the corporation and the industry of it operating at. Understanding the risk allows your corporation navigate in this period of turbulence.

Once the organizations identify they are under severe financial risk, the management should take immediate steps /measures to resolve this issue before it is too late.

In this seminar, restructuring professionals from EY will walk you through :

- Financial risks faced by corporation in financial distress;
- Existing restructuring regime available for the listed companies in Hong Kong;
- Latest changes in the Listing Rules impacting the role of restructuring.
